

Timothy Schenke Light of Hope Award

The Timothy Schenke Light of Hope Award will be granted to two Manasquan High School seniors annually. $500 will be awarded to each recipient. Each member of the graduating class may nominate one or more classmates, including him/herself.

Award winners should possess the following qualities:

- Makes the greatest effort to help others each day
- Consistently performs acts of encouragement, friendliness and kindness
- Is a light of hope to others when things seem most dark
- Builds up the spirit of others who are struggling to believe in themselves and their goodness

The message Tim would want to leave with you is this: never give up hope – no matter how tough things go for you in life; and whenever and wherever you can, give that hope to others.
